Pupil Performance: Y11 and Y13

I am delighted to share that, once again, King's College Alicante has performed outstandingly well at both IGCSE and A Level. Our results continue to be some of the best, not only within the Inspired Education Group, but also when compared to other schools around the globe. We are the top performing school in Spain and one of the top two performing schools across the 111 that make up the Inspired Group.
